JOHN FLANAGAN MAKES NEW RECORD WITH WEIGHT

Many Athletic Events Mark the Day's Sports and the Immense Crowd Is Greatly Interested in the Contests.

(Soccial to The Evening World.)
BAY CHESTER, N. Y., Sep., 10.—The breaking of the world's record by Champion John Flanagan in throwing the 56-pound weight marked the opening this afternoon of Pelham Bay Park Athletic Grounds. Flanagan threw & feet 7% inches, from scratch. His nearest opponent was E. N. Payne, of the Mott Haven Athletic Club, with 30 feet 11/4 Inches, and a handicap of 8 feet.

The weather was all that could be desired for open-air games, and nearly 10,000 people from all parts of Greater New York and Westchester County witnessed the athletes from the first event to the last. The presence of Mayor McClellan, President Fornes, of the Board of Aldermen; commissioner of Bronx Parks Schmitt, and other prominent municipal officials, together with detachments of regular troops from Fort Schuyler, militia and Grand Army organizations gave a color to the day's festivities that are not often noticeable on such occasions.

A splendid oval reaching back from the flashing waters of Pelham Bay, equipped with every appointment to de-light the heart of the athlete, of area sufficient to accommodate athletic carnivals on a gigantic scale, a broad elipse of turf for all monner of games, an immaculate racing track, side fields and shaven lawns for every feature of frolic or contest of strength that youth delights in, completes in this new common a public amusement place that surpasses anything in any other city in Ceremonies Last All Day.

The ceremonies with which the park was opened were on an extensive scale and continued throughout the day. The carnival of sports was opened at 9 cally all the foreign champions who gramme, which consisted of cleven St. Louis Fair, were entered in the One of the features of the day's racing various events on the programme, was the championship trotting race chester the Bronx had decided to make Leahy's Princess Pique and T. D. Waa holiday of it and miles of shops were closed. In their windows were prominently displayed huge placards bearing inscriptions announcing the Perina Inguity of the Mayor, who performed this function in an automobile, addresses by prolic officials, a flag-raising by the Mayor, with much booming of cannon, the feature that appealed to the masses of the appealance.
